

I strongly urge you to do nothing to compromise the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. We are tired of receiving mounting telemarketers call on a daily basis and are enjoying the Telephone Privacy Act that has given us back our freedom from being contacted to buy things that we have no interest in. Thank you.